ARKANSAS METHODIST MEDICAL CENTER CELEBRATES 60 YEARS

PARAGOULD, AR – Since 1949, Arkansas Methodist Medical Center has provided quality, compassionate healthcare to the people of Northeast Arkansas and Southeast Missouri. One of the ways AMMC is celebrating 60 years of service is through a musical revue. Local talent including hospital employees, the Greene County Fine Arts Council and other community members are joining together to present ‘Celebrating 60’.

The show will be presented on May 7th, 8th and 9th at 7:30 pm at the Historic Collins Theatre in downtown Paragould. The night will be filled with songs, dances and skits from the last six decades sure to entertain young and old alike.

Brenda Lane, an employee of AMMC and one of the directors of the show says, “If you were in the audience ten years ago for ‘At the Hop’ which celebrated the hospital’s 50th Anniversary, then you won’t want to miss ‘Celebrating 60’ this year”.

Tickets are available at Lantern Bookstore at 1707 Paragould Plaza. General admission is $10.00 and reserved seating is $15.00. Hospital employees may purchase tickets at the hospital from Teresa Vangilder. Dinner and show tickets are also available for $30.00 which entitles the purchaser to dinner at White House Inn followed by reserved seating at the Saturday night show. These tickets may be purchased by calling 239-7068.
