AMMC HOSTS LUNCHEON TO WELCOME NEW PHYSICIAN

WHO: Arkansas Methodist Medical Center

WHAT: AMMC is hosting a luncheon to welcome Interventional Cardiologist Allen J. Duplantis, MD, FACC to the medical center.

WHEN: Wednesday, September 9th from 12:00-1:00 pm
Please RSVP by Tuesday, September 8th by calling 239-7017

WHERE: Arkansas Methodist Medical Center Professional Office Building Auditorium

WHY: At the luncheon, Dr. Duplantis will be addressing ways to keep your heart healthy and procedures to correct heart problems.

Dr. Duplantis comes to AMMC from Hannibal Regional Hospital in Hannibal, MO, where he served as Director of Interventional Cardiology for three years. Prior to his tenure at Hannibal Regional Hospital, Dr. Duplantis was an interventional cardiologist at Ozark Medical Center in West Plains, MO. He also has been a cardiologist in private practice throughout the Southeastern and Southwestern United States from Mississippi to Texas to Oklahoma, as well as in Jonesboro for eight years.

A recognized leader, Arkansas Methodist Medical Center in Paragould provides progressive, compassionate healthcare to residents throughout Northeast Arkansas and Southeast Missouri. Additional information about AMMC is available at: www.arkansasmethodist.org.
