AMMC WOMEN'S COUNCIL HOSTS RACE FOR THE CURE
REGISTRATION CELEBRATION

WHO: Arkansas Methodist Medical Center Women's Council

WHAT: AMMC Women's Council is hosting a Susan G. Komen Arkansas Race for the Cure team registration celebration to get the residents of Paragould and Greene County signed up on the Ridge Runners for the Cure team.

WHEN: Friday, August 7, 2009 from 1:00 pm-6:00 pm

WHERE: Paragould Wal-Mart Supercenter

WHY: Susan G. Komen Arkansas Race for the Cure teams are made up of 10 or more people and are used as a means to celebrate life and make a difference in the fight against breast cancer. Teams will join more than 46,000 participants on Saturday, October 17, 2009 in Little Rock to celebrate and honor breast cancer survivors and remember friends and family who have lost their fight to the disease.

On Friday, August 7th, the AMMC Women's Council will help participants sign up for the Ridge Runners for the Cure team. The Arkansas Methodist mammography staff will be on hand with breast cancer prevention and awareness information. Ridge Runners for the Cure team t-shirts will also be for sale.

For more information, please call 870-239-8031.
